North Korea May Return Plane Crew

Rhee Negotiations Would Free Members Of Captured Ship

TOKYO, Feb. 21 (UPI)—Communist North Korea said today the crew and passengers of a captured airliner will be allowed to return if President Syngman Rhee of South Korea will negotiate for their release.

The broadcast from the North Korean capital of Pyongyang thus put the pressure on the aged Rhee who has steadfastly refused to recognize the Red regime or negotiate with it.

The Communists have claimed the Korean National Airline plane with its two U.S. pilots and 32 other persons flew voluntarily to North Korea Sunday. KNA said Red agents aboard the plane kidnapped it.

Desire To Return

The Pyongyang broadcast admitted that there are some who desire to return.

After saying those who wanted to be allowed to go back to South Korea, Pyongyang hedged this way: "Our side has already made it clear if the South Korean authorities really want to realize the hope of those desiring to return home it is proper that they should directly approach the government of the Democratic People's Republic of Korea for this."

The fate of those who want to return to the South, the broadcast said, hinges entirely upon the attitude of Syngman Rhee.

North Korea's demand for negotiations aroused speculation that the Communists would use any conference to press their proposal for withdrawal of U.N. troops from South Korea and unification of the country through elections supervised by so-called neutral nations.

Plan Is Rejected

South Korea, the United States and other allies in Korea have rejected this plan. They say North Korea will insist on such "neutrals" as Communist Poland and Czechoslovakia among the inspectors.

The plane, which was on a flight from Pusan to Seoul, was piloted by Willis P. Hobbs, Vallejo, Calif. The copilot was Lt. Col. Howard W. McClellan, Buchanan, Mich. Others aboard were a West German couple and 30 Koreans.

South Korean police said investigation indicates a 34-year-old man named Kim Taik Sun gave the pilot orders at gunpoint while two or three armed compatriots guarded the passengers.

Adlai Is Pleased

By Leopold Parole

CHICAGO, Feb. 21 (UPI)—Adlai Stevenson, former Illinois governor who gave Nathan Leopold his first hope of leaving prison alive, said today he is happy about the thrill killer's parole.

Stevenson in 1949 cut Leopold's

99-year kidnapping sentence to 85 years in recognition of the prison er's volunteer service as a guinea pig in malaria control experimen ts during World War II.

The 14-year reduction made

Leopold eligible to apply for pa

"I think Leopold has earned a parole," Stevenson said. "That's what the parole law is for."

GOP Won't Get Campaign Fund

Pictures Show Eisenhower Is Careless With Shotgun

THOMASVILLE, Ga., Feb. 21 (UPI)

—President Eisenhower touched off some talk today in handling his hunting gun in a manner generally regarded as careless from a safety standpoint.

Particularly careless, some thought, for an old soldier well schooled in how to handle a gun.

The episode occurred as news men watched Eisenhowe

get ready to start out on a quail shoot with his vacation host, former Secretary of the Treasury George Humphrey.

If any of the 30 or so news men on hand knew much about how guns should be handled. But when photographs of the Presi dent with his 20-gauge double-bar rebel shotgun turned up later for study, those who do know about weapons shook their heads.

The pictures showed Eisenhowe r in a hunting carriage with the gun between his knees, muzzle

That is something that never should be done, say the experts, even if the gun is open at the breech as a safety measure.

Some of the pictures showed the breech of the president's gun closed.

Indonesian Planes Hit At Sumatra

Two Bombers Drop Explosives On A Bridge At Painan

PADANG, Sumatra, Feb. 21 (UPI)—Indonesian warplanes today struck the first blow against the rebel government in Sumatra, a spokesman announced.

The rebel spokesman said two B25 bombers gunned and dropped seven bombs on a bridge at Painan, a coastal town 47 miles south of here.

He said damage was slight and there were no casualties although villagers were going to a nearby mosque for prayers on Indonesia's Moslem Sunday. The Padang radio previously had said two persons were wounded.

An Indonesian Catalina flying boat also made a landing on Lake Singkarak, north of here, apparently in another practice for possible troop landings, the spokesman said.

Demand Spurned

The reported attack came barely an hour after President Sukarno spurned a rebel demand for the ouster of the Cabinet of Premier Djunda.

Both sides were predicting that the struggle would be settled by political and economic weapons. Rebel leaders previously have claimed that the use of force by the government would bring about popular revolution.

In accepting Sukarno's orders to act against the rebels, Premier Djunda said he could not guarantee there will be no shooting, since it would be necessary to use the army, navy and air force to carry out a blockade. Neither side has much military power.

Cancel All Sailings

Singapore shipowners today canceled all sailings of barter ships to Sumatran ports.

For more than a year rebel groups in Indonesia's outer islands, demanding a greater share from their rich exports, have been thumbing their noses at the Central government and conducting their own barter trade with Singapore.

Opposition to the Central government crystallized when Sukarno offered a blue print for "guided democracy" which allowed Java's growing Communist party to enter the government.

He took note of the Egyptian statement and added "it goes without saying the Sudanese question continues to figure on the agenda of the Security Council."

Sudan had requested a meeting of the Council to halt an "imminent Egyptian aggression" in the frontier area. Both Egypt and Sudan are claiming two border regions—one a triangle along the Red Sea and the other a sliver along the Nile. They involve about 2,000 square miles north of the 22nd Parallel.

Rocket Bases Pact Delayed

LONDON, Feb. 21 (UPI)—The signing of the U.S.-British agreement setting up four rocket-launching bases in Britain has been delayed a week, a government spokesman said today.

The agreement was due to have been signed in Washington last Monday or Tuesday. But the ceremony was reported delayed because Prime Minister Macmillan, who had just returned from a 39-day Commonwealth tour, wanted to scrutinize all the terms of the pact.

The agreement has aroused considerable controversy among Britain's political parties. Macmillan yesterday turned down a request by the opposition Labor party to defer the actual setting up of the rocket bases pending a summit conference with Russia.

Air Force Says M'Elroy Wrong In Decision

WASHINGTON, Feb. 21 (P)—The Air Force has told Congress Secretary of Defense McElroy was wrong when he stopped its work on an antimissile missile and gave the go-ahead to the Army.

This decision, announced Jan. 18, was premature, Lt. Gen. D.L. Puff told the House Armed Services Committee in testimony made public today.

He said the Air Force, if it had the say would not develop the Army's Nike-Zeus weapon against intercontinental ballistic missiles.

The testimony, shredded by security deletions, indicated that the Air Force does not believe the Nike-Zeus is capable of being improved to cope with possible changes that would give Soviet ICBMs harder-to-intercept flight paths.

Puff is the Air Force deputy chief of staff for development. His testimony, given behind closed doors Tuesday, apparently caused serious concern to some committee members. Rep. Rivers (D-SC) recalled an estimate that six billion dollars might be spent on Nike-Zeus protection for the whole country.

Rep. Arends of Illinois, senior Republican member of the committee, told Puff his testimony about Russian missile capabilities—which was censored out of the transcript— and U.S. defenses led him to "believe that our situation is much worse than maybe we have thought before."

Later, after Puff and Asst. Sec. Ret. Richard E. Horner stressed the deterrent effect of U.S. power to devastate Russia in retaliation against any attack, Arends said, "I certainly can't conceive that Russia can do a knockout job that I was led a few minutes ago to believe might happen."

Puff said the Air Force's Wiz-ard program for an antimissile missile was entrusted to three different contractors and was getting near the point of a decision on a specific weapon to develop when it was cut off.

The other condition is that the Batista government must agree to let the United Nations send observers here to assure free and honest elections.

It was reported Batista was informed of the interview but there was no comment from the presidential palace. Observers said it is highly unlikely Batista will consider any Castro proposals seriously. He has often declared he will never deal with "the Communist criminal Castro."

Furthermore, Batista has given pledges that his opposition will have the fullest guarantees in efforts to win the election.

Ramirez told the Congress committee he sought the interview with Castro on his own initiative. New disorders and a student strike developed today.

But the government ended a week-long hunger strike at Havana's main prison by releasing 13 prisoners once accused in the attempted assassination of Batista now anchored off Freeport, Va.

Carl Hill, head of the Freezone Holding Co., said this firm leases the facilities to the Freezone Amusement Co. Inc., owned by a group including his brother, J. Earl Hill.

Carl Hill then said the amusement company leases the machines from E. Elwood Jones of Charles County, who in turn leases them from the Potomac Novelty Co.

Clergymen testifying for the bill included the Rev. Charles F. Kirkley, Annapolis Methodist minister, who has registered as a lobbyist on "all matters related to morality." Also appearing were the Rev. George L. Waters of the Colonial Beach Methodist Church and Carlton Garrett, a construction worker who is a lay preacher at the same church.

Garrett set off a round of laughter when, after saying he had helped build two of three Cojones Beach gambling piers, he joked, "I don't know anything about that."

The committee was only slightly more successful in attempting to trace the ownership of about 200 slot machines operated on a former Chesapeake Bay excursion steamer now anchored off Freeport, Va.

Heart Sunday Crusade In County Tomorrow Afternoon

Jr. Civic Club Plans Heart Sunday Crusade

Garrett Leaders Watch Weather

Grant County Women Study Jury Duty

OAKLAND — Members of the Junior Woman's Civic Club will conduct the Heart Sunday campaign here tomorrow, according to Mrs. Irvin Feld, local Heart Sunday chairman for the Allegany-Garrett Heart Association of which she is also vice president.

Mrs. Feld said that the volunteers expect to attempt the annual crusade Sunday, despite the inclement weather, but any places missed will be contacted later.

Among those who will participate in the campaign are Mrs. Wilbur Close, Mrs. Lois Detmer, Mrs. John Getty, Mrs. James Helbig, Mrs. William Hesen, Mrs. Joseph Hinebaugh, Mrs. Thomas Kight, Miss Elizabeth Kildow.

Mrs. Kenneth Lawton, Mrs. Frank McDaniel, Mrs. James McHenry, Mrs. S. P. Ragenhardt, Mrs. Wayne Pritts, Mrs. Robert Proudfoot, Mrs. Irvin Rudy Jr., Mrs. Willis Shaffer, Mrs. Eugene Taylor, Mrs. Wendell Turney, Mrs. Harold Trickett, Mrs. William Treacy, Mrs. Richard Welch, Mrs. Robert Wooters.

Mrs. Jack Shuttleworth, Mrs. L. J. Sacher, Mrs. Edward Smouse, Mrs. Dale Evans, Mrs. William Glotfelter, Mrs. Elsie Smith, Mrs. G. Riddell and Mrs. Feld.

According to Mrs. Irva Mickey, of Grantsville, co-chairman with Mrs. Harry Edwards for Northern Garrett County, and Mrs. W. W. DeWitt of Hoyes, chairman for Southern Garrett County, there are many areas where the Heart Sunday crusade will be next to impossible. Sunday because of the weather.

In the towns and more heavily populated areas, where streets and roads are open, volunteers will make their drive. But in rural areas, where snow is deep and drifted, leaders have agreed that workers should make their solicitations at their own convenience, as weather permits.

Mrs. Ralph Swaiger, Heart chairman in the Friendsville reported that members of a church youth group volunteered to make the calls there, and declared "the weather will be no barrier to us."

Mrs. Audrea Durst and Mrs. Howard Hetrick are leaders in the Jennings Area, and they expect to canvas as weather and roads permit.

In other parts of the county, leaders said "we will wait and see. If weather permits, we will work, if not, we will wait."

Bruce Tri-Hi-Y Plan Twirl Dance

WESTERNPORT — The Twirl Week dance sponsored by the Tri-Hi-Y Club will be held in the cafeteria of Bruce High School tonight from 8 to 12 o'clock.

Les Clifford's orchestra will provide the music.

The "Twirl Week" thus scheduled for Thursday night, February 20, was postponed to Tuesday, February 25, so it would not conflict with the Sweetheart dance that was held the February 20.

Cheerful Club Is Entertained

MT. SAVAGE — The Cheerful Card Club met recently at the home of Mrs. Adelaide Logsdon. Refreshments were carried out in a Valentine motif. Prizes were won by Mrs. Anna Marie Williams, Mrs. Leona Reagan, Mrs. Bertha Farrell. A special Valentine prize was awarded to Miss Martha Reagan.

Trail Of Cold Cure • Getting Warmer

While much of the United States is still in the grip of this winter's most severe storm, it may be some small consolation to note an announcement by the U. S. Public Health Service that medical science is at last approaching a final showdown in its relentless bout with the common cold.

This nation, along with most of its neighbors in the Northern Hemisphere, is now undergoing the time of year when the common cold takes its highest toll.

Statistics on the cold, of which there is an abundance available, indicate one of every four Americans will be nursing a cold every day, from now until the end of March. This explains the dubious honor held by the cold as the most costly of human ailments, both in dollars and time lost.

But a progress report by the health service holds out the hope the time may not be far away when the common cold will be toppled from its throne as king of the human maladies. Already researchers have knocked off a sizable chunk of colds and related respiratory illnesses by developing vaccines which are 70 per cent effective against influenza.

Of so many varied types are respiratory illnesses, many of which are mistakenly treated as the common cold, that doctors are forced to direct their search for cures in many directions. It is doubtful that there will ever be one vaccine effective against all types of the prevalent viruses, but scientists are becoming more and more successful in alienating and effecting controls for individual strains.

It would be staggering to estimate the amount of money spent in research alone because of the common cold, but no sum is too great to stop a scourge which causes a loss of 150 million work days in the United States annually.

These Days

By George E. Sokolsky

The Teen Agers

The real news of the day is our children. Jordan and Iraq, Nasser and Yemen, Khrushchev and Zhukov may make the headlines, but the gang wars and the duck-tail hair-dos for boys and the sloppy shoes for girls and other manifestations of rebellious youth are our immediate problem.

Why do young people organize into gangs? They always did, whether you call them gangs, groups, cliques, teams. The name does not change the fact that children do not like to be alone unless there is something wrong with them. There is warmth and security in group play and group associations. Also children like to do things. They dislike doing nothing.

Organize a school band and there is a combination of being in a crowd and doing something. Organize a debating club, a glee club, any kind of group with something to do and youngsters will flock to it, particularly if they can run the show themselves. An adult adviser or consultant or moderator or whatever you call him to be careful not to become a papa to the boys and girls; they have enough of papa at home.

The gangs of a city like New York are brilliantly organized. They are attempts at self-government. They are protected by self-imposed discipline and the boys and girls make an ideal of personal physical heroism. They could become socially useful organizations if properly directed. Children are lacking in restraints; they say more than they mean; they go too far, as the expression is. They could be diverted into fine play organizations if there were proper guidance and proper facilities. I say this from experience, because in my childhood we, on the East Side of New York, went through exactly the same situations that now face the Negro and Puerto Rican children of New York. Society has excluded them; they make their own society.

The public school is an insufficient agency to assimilate this new population into existent society. The public school cannot even recognize that it faces a racial problem without having all the bleeding-hearts and pressure groups fighting against acknowledging a racial discrimination which is real because it exists, just as religious discrimination is real wherever it exists.

The teen-age gangs that are discussed with so much fear in the large cities are mainly gangs of Negro and Puerto Rican children. However, the basic problem is not racial, but the broken home. The broken home presents a myriad of problems for the child who needs to build itself around some rallying-post other than parents. Where there are two sets of parents, or three sets, where children are the products of multi-marriages, so that three or four half-sisters and half-brothers or step-sisters and step-brothers are living under one roof, no child quite understands all the complex relationships. This is particularly so when visiting time comes and the child has to spend a number of days, specified by a court, with another set of parents, a different environment. The child makes comparisons, most of which end up as unfavorable to all parents.

A child does not need to be poor to feel friendless. The poor, in fact, are better off than the rich because they gang up and if the gang does not go in for heroin or marijuana and does not get into murderous fights, they can have fun without going to jail. The rich kid is protected by artificial devices such as governesses, nurses, boarding schools, none of which answer the longing for love, to be wanted, to be included.

It is too easy to say that the kid is a rotten egg. Who made the child a rotten egg? What did it? What are the forces that turn an ordinary boy into a murderer? What are the disillusionments that make a girl a tough, mean-spoken gangster's moll? One does not need to be a bleeding-heart to recognize that the poison is in the home—in the broken home, the loveless home, the quarrelsome home, the brutal home.

It is a problem which is not too easy to approach, almost impossible to solve. It involves more than education; it involves assimilation, an absorption of unwanted but not necessarily undesirable elements in a society which has set up barriers, no matter how disguised, against these elements.

The Hall Of Mirrors

Grandfather's Voice In A Room On The River

By Joseph Alsop

LONDON The room is colorlessly comfortable, without character except for the superb view of the Thames through the wide windows. The room's inhabitant suggests a particularly spry bird. The nose is beaklike, the shock of white hair is a superb crest, and even the voice, high, dry and sometimes a little harsh, is decidedly avian.

Such is Lord Russell, at the age of eighty-five and in the midst of his inexhaustible career's new phase as a most powerful influence on British and world opinion.

One with any sense of history can first encounter Bertrand Russell without a spasm of downright incredulity. There he still is, you say to yourself, yet he said his ABCs to the man who moved Britain's reform bill of 1832 and reached the Prime Ministry before Palmerston.

The grandfather, Lord John Russell, bore the largest single share of the responsibility for ushering England into the new democratic age; and in order to do so, he helped drive from office the men who beat Napoleon. The grandson has been a dozen things—great philosopher, great logician, First World War pacifist, Second World War anti-Nazi and always a passionate libertarian and a passionate anti-Communist.

But now his life and work are dedicated to a vigorous crusade to ban the nuclear weapons at all costs.

Fort Hill Breaks LaSalle's 18-Game Win Streak, 55-54

Meeks' Goal Wins Game In Final Second

Sentinels Triumph Before 1,000 Fans, Lead In City Race

By TED TROXELL

It finally happened! The

Many of the more than 1,000 fans who crowded into the SS. Peter & Paul gymnasium last night are still shaking their heads in disbelief at the way Fort Hill overcame seemingly insurmountable odds to upset LaSalle, 55-54, and snap the Explorers' 18-game win streak, which included 13 straight triumphs during the current season.

The fired-up Sentinels took the lead in the triangular city race with a record of 3-1. LaSalle has a 2-1 mark in city play and will get a chance to tie the Fort Hillians for the title next Friday, when they take on Allegany. Which has yet to win in intra-city play and is out of the running altogether.

LaSalle held a substantial 10-point, 34-24, lead with less than 6 1/2 minutes to play in the thrilling struggle, but were unable to hit the target after "Chazz" lines one-hander swished through to give Coach George Geatz's crew this advantage.

Meeks Turns Tide

Fort Hill began pecking away at the Explorers lead and climaxed the sensational rally when Jerry Meeks canned the game-winning field goal with one second left to play.

Following Innes' fielder, LaSalle pivotman, Rick Winfield, committed his fifth personal foul with 3:58 remaining. The Sentinels' Doug Metz, who proved to be a cool performer under pressure, converted both free throws and the Fort Hill quint was on its way to staging the "big surprise."

Meeks hit on a follow-through layup to cut the margin to 54-48, then Donnie Lewis grabbed the tipoff following a jump ball at quarter court, drove for the basket and connected on a layup to pull Fort Hill within four points, 54-50, with 30 seconds showing on the scoreboard clock.

Metz again came through with a pair of conversions from the charity stripe to make it 54-52, but Lewis fouled Van Parsons with seven seconds left and the fighting Sentinels watched their chances for victory fade.

Parsons missed the free throw, however, and Jerry Meeks picked off the rebound and whipped a pass the length of the court to sleeper "Junior" O'Neal. O'Neal was fouled by Jim Ternent as he caught Meeks' pitch, and the Fort Hill fans began whooping it up once again.

O'Neal Misses Foul

Two seconds remained when O'Neal stepped to the 15-foot mark and plunked in his first attempt to close the gap to 54-53. Junior's second try rimmed off, but Meeks came through once more, plucking off the rebound and tossing in the history-making two-pointer.

The Sentinels led by as much as eight points in the first half, but LaSalle came on with a rush midway in the second period to erase the Fort Hill advantage and take a 28-27 lead as the half ended.

Prior to the last-second action which gave Fort Hill the victory, the Sentinels hadn't held the advantage since early in the third stanza when a jump shot by Meeks from behind the foul circle gave them a short-lived 31-30 edge. Innes countered with a layup to put the lead back into the hands of the Explorers, who held the upper hand at the close of the quarter, 49-48.

Garlitz High Scorer

Meeks and forward Charlie Robinson led Fort Hill in scoring with 13 points apiece, the latter collecting all of his tallies in the first half, while O'Neal was right behind with 12. Rich Garlitz, with 17 points, was high for LaSalle, followed by Innes and Parsons with 15 and 12 markers respectively.

The Explorers outscored Fort Hill from the field, 23-19, but were able to click on only eight of 24 free throws, compared to the Sentinels' foul line effort of 17-31. Lineups:

ACTION IN CITY CAGE BATTLE—Donnie Lewis (20) of Fort Hill, shown on extreme right, bounces ball past Charlie Howell (44) of LaSalle during action in basketball thriller between LaSalle and Fort Hill last night on SS. Peter & Paul court. Other players in picture are Rick Winfield (35) LaSalle, Gerald Meeks (24) Fort Hill, Rich Garlitz (25) LaSalle and Jim Ternent (42) LaSalle. Thurl Roy, Fort Hill is in the background. Meeks' field goal gave Fort Hill a 55-54 victory, handed LaSalle its first defeat in 19 starts, and put Coach "Bobby" Cavanaugh's Sentinels ahead in the city championship race with a 3-1 record.

Bowie To Resume Racing Today After Five-Day Shutdown

Eight Events Listed, Stakes Are Cancelled

Pierce Predicts Million Handle, Crowd Of 12,000

BOWIE, Md., Feb. 21 (P)—Bowie resumes its racing program tomorrow after slumbering under a near-record snowfall for six days.

The day's program will carry a full card—eight races. But two stake races, the $15,000 George Washington Stakes and the $12,500 Burch Memorial, have been cancelled.

The normal train service directly to the track will not be running. But General Manager Howard Pierce said bus companies in Baltimore, Washington, New York and Camden, N. J., have assured the track they are making their own arrangements to pick up customers.

Predicts Big Handle

Pierce predicted another million dollar handle from a crowd of 12,000 to 15,000.

How does Bowie President Donald Lillis feel about his program to shove the opening of Maryland's racing season into the late winter months?

Hasn't changed his mind a bit. He's still 100 per cent for it.

He readily agreed that he had not counted on the 18-inch snowfall last Saturday or the gale winds that piled it into deep drifts for the next three days, but he said he still was confident of a meeting just as successful as last year, when the track averaged a million dollar handle over its 40 days.

Idle Two Days

When scheduling its meeting, Bowie allowed three days for bad weather. It already has lost those three, and two more. Lillis said he probably will ask the State Racing Commission to add the two lost days to next year's assigned dates.

About 500 cars still are on the parking lots, left there last Saturday by snowbound racers after the near-blizzard swept in late in the afternoon. But crews have been clearing the lot for the past two days, and aided by the 40-degree temperatures for the past two days, expect to have them cleared by tomorrow morning.

All access roads were reported clear enough for use without chains or snow tires.

Parkway Effect On Wildlife Is Discussed Here

The fears of Western Maryland sportsmen concerning the construction of the C&O Canal Parkway and its effect on hunting in the eastern part of Allegany County were allayed Thursday by Edwin M. Dale, superintendent of the parkway project.

Dale spoke before representatives of 17 clubs in the Western Maryland Wildlife Federation at a meeting held at the Cumberland Outdoor Club headquarters on Frederick Street.

The parkway project will not hurt hunting in the area of Green Ridge State Forest and other adjacent areas as had been rumored, Dale told the group. In fact, Joseph Macon, Richard Reid, Ralph Reynolds, Phil Fleming, Jack Fields and Lester Hartman, all proceeds, however, will go to the hunting lands in that area, the "Old-Timers Night" program which was cancelled last Saturday due to inclement weather.

The report that hunters would not be allowed to cross the parkway while they are armed is untrue, Dale said. Of course, guns will have to be unloaded and broken while the parkway is traversed.

Maps of the proposed route services will be held in Emmitsburg and the Methodist Church beginning Saturday, March 1 with a 12-hour walk through the canal for its entire length.

prayer vigil from 8 p.m. until from the canal so that about 13,000 acres will be on the south

Rev. Kenneth W. Grove, pastor, of the church will remain canal. This area will be available open during this time and parish for hunting. Dale added.

Rev. Grove will use chalk drawings to illustrate various points of the parkway project. The parkway project was brought out in a half-hour vigil period. The parkway project will begin at Dale. He said the roadway the Sunday morning worship and will be designed as a "miniature continue through Friday evening, "Skyline Drive" in that it will rise to the crest of Sidelong Hill Mountain.

The general theme of the service will be "Christ and Man's Dilemma." There will be special mountain area.

The parkway will start at a point near Paw Paw and run to the crest of Sidelong Hill Mountain.

Rev. Grove will use chalk drawings to illustrate various points of the parkway project. The parkway project will be about 25 miles, as series, being held in conjunction according to estimates by Dale, with the general program of the National Park Service director, were concluded at a recent Official Board meeting presided over by Virgil Bishop.

If you wish to be a pleasant companion, make sure that your breath is always pleasant and fresh.

Secrets Of Charm

by John Robert Powers

Care Of Breath

Every precaution should be taken to eliminate offensive breath. Excessive smokers, those who partake of alcoholic beverages and strong flavored foods need always be on guard.

Pleasant breath always speaks well-cared-for teeth. It is not sufficient merely to brush the teeth after each meal. Any cavities must be given dental care as quickly as possible. Teeth must be kept free of scale and polished.

Nasal difficulties present another source of trouble. Ask your doctor's advice in solving your problems as quickly as possible if you are suffering from catarrh or excessive discharge.

Anxiety, grief, excitement of any kind or any strong emotion, particularly when it inhibits your secretion of saliva resulting in mouth dryness, can be a source of unpleasant breath. Knowing this, at such times it is well to use a mouth wash as frequently as possible, and to take extra care in scrubbing your teeth as well as avoiding strong flavored foods.

Anyone can check his or her tendency toward mouth breathing, which can augment breath problems. You can also take care not to breathe directly into the face of another person while carrying on a conversation. Just the slight tilt of the head can make all the difference in the world.

Like many another beauty or charm problem, this one is a matter of keeping your health and cleanliness up to par!

MONDAY: Take It Setting Down.

YOUR BEAUTY DIET—Whether you want to gain, lose or remain the same—YOUR BEAUTY DIET will provide you with a pattern of eating that is good for you and that can be followed by the entire family according to each individual's needs. YOUR BEAUTY DIET is a way of eating—not starving. Write to: Secrets of Charm, in care of this newspaper, and enclose 10 cents plus stamped, self-addressed envelope.

Keeping Up With Hollywood

by Louella Parsons

HOLLYWOOD, Feb. 21 (INS)—One of Europe's greatest, Maria Schell, joins one of America's greatest, Gary Cooper, in "The Hanging Tree." In other words, Jack Warner said today that Maria has been signed to co-star with Gary in his Martin Jiruow-Richard Shepard Baroda production for Warners.

Jack says James Webb has written an excellent script from Dorothy Johnson's classic, which you may remember won the 1957 spur award for westerns. This will be directed by Delmar Daves as soon as Gary is free to report. Remember, it is laid in Coop's own state of Montana. P. S. There's been a lot of competition to get Maria, whose last picture was "Brothers Karazakov" for MGM.

Guess where Cary Grant is at this moment? In Moscow, of all places! After he finished "Indiscretions" he took off for Russia for a few days of sightseeing.

At the finish of the same picture Ingrid Bergman went to Rome to be with her children and probably to appear in the annual proceedings.

Polan Banks cables from Trinidad, where he and his bride went for the Calypso Carnival. He said, "was glad to read your column in the Trinidad Daily Guardian." I'm glad it's being printed there.

Frank Sinatra was a living doll when he went to the Santa Barbara sneak preview of "King's Go Forth," autographing for the fans like mad. He chartered a bus and took 21 guests.

After three years away from show business, Vera Vague is coming back in Hugo Hass' "Little Miracles." She sold her fabulous orchid business.

Geoffrey called Dick Clayton and asked him to fly to New York for the ceremony, which took place in a Supreme Court judge's chambers. After the ceremony the bride and groom took off on the Christopher Columbus for one week's honeymoon before Geoffrey starts "The Tempest" with Van Heflin and Sylva Mangan.

Just before sailing time, as a switch, Nancy gave Dick a wed-ding present by signing with him for Famous Artists. He already handles Geoffrey. She wants to make movies.

Sandbag Supply Will Arrive Here Monday

Draglines Fill Gaps In Flood Wall

Sandbags to close gaps in this city's nearly completed flood protection system will be delivered Monday so they will be on hand if the heavy accumulation of ice and snow in the mountains thaws suddenly and threatens a flood here.

C. R. Nuzum, city engineer and chairman of the Flood Emergency Warning Plan for this area, said Rex E. Dexter, resident engineer for the Corps of Engineers, advised yesterday that 13,000 sandbags will be delivered here by truck Monday at noon.

The preparations for a possible flood were being made yesterday as the sun broke the back of the winter's worst storm.

Skies Are Sunny

Unofficially the temperature rose to 50 degrees here yesterday afternoon and everyone was enjoying the sunny weather. Up Pealer and William R. Carscadden, members of the CUF steering committee, said that to re-open highway lanes as the temperature went all the way up to 38° cities would have to affiliate with the CUF and agree not to hold future separate fund drives.

The CUF statement follows: "On November 27, 1957, the County United Fund made the following offers: Muscular Dystrophy Association, $3,000; Allegany County Chapter of the National Foundation for Infantile Paralysis, $20,000; and the Allegany-Garrett Counties Heart Association, $17,000."

Since November, the Muscular Dystrophy Association and the National Foundation for Infantile Paralysis have conducted their annual campaigns for operating funds. The campaign results as reported in the local newspapers have not reached the offerings of the County United Funds to these National Health Agencies. In view of this, the CUF has offered to these agencies, the difference between its original offer and the amount of contributions obtained in the campaigns.

Seek End To Drives

On this basis, the CUF has offered $12,000 to the National Foundation for Infantile Paralysis and $2,000 to the Muscular Dystrophy Association with the condition that these agencies will not conduct a drive for funds next year, and that they would become affiliated agencies of the County United Fund.

The Allegany-Garrett Counties Heart Association has again been offered $17,000 for its 1958 operation if it will not conduct its planned campaign for funds and become an affiliated agency of the CUF.

During the campaign of the County United Fund in October all contributors were advised that offerings of funds would be made to the national health agencies even though their national policies would not allow them to become affiliated with the CUF.

The County United Fund is in sympathy with and admires the fine community spirit of the volunteer workers of these national health agency campaigns. These citizens recognize the need of the fine services and research programs of the national health agencies and wish to see them continued and expanded as the need arises.

Plan New Gage

At several points along Wills Creek, contractors have had to leave blanks in the new flood walls and in one spot to cut through the old wall, to get equipment in and out of the creek.

The E. J. Albrecht Company has begun work on closing a gap near the Viaduct Pumping Station.

The company also had drag-lines at work, picking up fill from the bed of Wills Creek and dumping it into the gaps, where it was being pushed into place by bulldozers.

Should the waters threaten to go higher, sandbags could be used to raise the plugs in the gaps several feet higher.

Next week the Engineering Department will erect another gage in Wills Creek, at the Standard Oil bulk plant in the Narrows, to take the place of the gage eliminated by the new Valley Street Bridge.

Mr. Nuzum said the Civil Defense Agency and similar groups have started planning for any flood emergency.

Two Stations Ready

Much trouble has been experienced in the past from storm sewers backing up and spilling out in the street.

CUF Repeats Offers To 3 Health Units

All Had Declined Funds Last Fall

County United Fund announced yesterday it has made new offers of funds to three health agencies which declined to accept previous offers.

Affected are Allegany-Garrett County Muscular Dystrophy Association, Allegany County Chapter, National Foundation for Infantile Paralysis, and Allegany-Garrett Counties Heart Association.

The United Fund has offered $1,000 bond and committed Jack Winn, about 40, of 315 Frederick Street, and Gerald Burkett, 26, of 400 Decatur Street, to Allegany County Jail in default of bond.

The four defendants were charged with unlawfully breaking and entering Whitacre Esso Service Station, North Mechanic and Bedford streets, on February 15, with intent to steal goods and chattels valued at over $25.

This charge is listed in Article 27, Section 32, of the 1957 code of Maryland and carries a maximum sentence of not more than 10 years.

Couldn't Try Case

Magistrate Donald W. Mason pointed out that trial magistrates cannot impose penitentiary sentences, so he had no authority to try the case, but did hold a preliminary hearing, as requested by the defendants.

Testifying at the hearing were Police Officers James Swann and Royce J. Clayton, who arrested Winn and Burkett at the service station last Saturday night. Detective Lt. James E. Van, and Cook, who took the stand and testified after being advised by Magistrate Mason.

Saying he wanted to tell, Cook testified that Humberston asked him when he went off work, to leave the side door of the station unbolted.

Offered $12-$25

He said he did leave the place open February 15 and that Humberston said he would give him from $15 to $25, depending on how much he got from the job.

The officers testified they caught Winn and Burkett inside the station that night and that Burkett had a pair of tin snips, knife and flashlight, which were hidden when the men saw the officers.

After the preliminary hearing, the magistrate ordered the men held, ruling there was sufficient evidence for holding for action of the grand jury.

Assistant State's Attorney James S. Getty prosecuted the case.

Earl E. Manges represented Burkett and Winn and was co-counsel with Edward J. Ryan for Humberston.

Baby Sitter Lists Ready

Copies of revised baby sitter lists are available, the City Recreation Department announced yesterday.

The 1958 revision lists 103 baby sitters, including 49 adults and 54 teen-age girls.

Copies of the lists are available by calling or writing the Recreation Department at City Hall.

The available baby sitters are listed by sections of the city and its outskirts.

Many of the adult women who registered are willing to serve at any time or to stay overnight and some are available as companions.

Each baby sitter listed has been checked with the Police Department, Juvenile Court and Associated Charities and, if a student, through her school. None has been deemed "objectionable" by any of the organizations.

The sincerity of this pledge is evidenced in the offerings to these National Health Agencies in support of their work during 1958.

Were it not for the County United Fund, the citizens of our community would be bombarded with many appeals each year, and not only every mother but also every mother's husband, son and daughter would be asked and expected to spend a substantial amount of time either marching or being marched on.

The County United Fund has an "open door" policy and stands ready to admit to membership in the County United Fund every agency, whether local or national in scope, which has a just claim to public support and will comply with the County United Fund's reasonable standards...

Four Men Held On Intent To Steal Charge

Preliminary Hearing Is Conducted Here

Four men were ordered held for action of the April grand jury on charges of breaking and entering with intent to steal after a preliminary hearing yesterday in Trial Magistrates Court.

Magistrate Donald W. Mason released two of the men, Francis George Humberston, 52 North Mechanic Street, and Herman Alfred Cook, Rawlings, under $1,000 bond and committed Jack Winn, about 40, of 315 Frederick Street, and Gerald Burkett, 26, of 400 Decatur Street, to Allegany County Jail in default of bond.

World Serve All

However, the County United Fund, which was organized by the givers who support all community agencies, has pledged to support both local and national agencies serving within the community.

Water, Sewage Bills Are Being Printed On Postal Cards

The Water Department has placed its new billing system into operation, according to Commissioner Williams J. Edwards.

The bills are printed on two-cent postal cards under a system similar to that used by the gas company, and show gross and net charges for water and sewage treatment service.

The bills are prepared on a new billing machine which prints directly on the customer's quarterly bill and at the same time on a customer's ledger.

The ledger card will provide a three-year record of each customer.

Eagles Plan Initiation Here Tuesday Night

60th Anniversary Will Be Observed

Cumberland Aerie 245, Fraternal Order of Eagles, which was formed in 1902, will celebrate the order's 60th anniversary with a class initiation in the Aerie home on Tuesday at 7:30 p.m.

The Upper Potomac River Commission has filed an application with the State Department of Geology, Mines and Water Resources for permission to construct a $3,000,000 waste treatment plant in the Potomac River near Westernport for the West Virginia Pulp and Paper Company and the Tri-Towns of Westernport, Piedmont and Luke.

A public hearing on this application will be held at 11 a.m. Thursday, March 13, in Room 102, Latrobe Hall, The Johns Hopkins University, Baltimore.

The class will be in honor of Martin J. Mol, grand worthy president of the POE, who was in Cumberland recently on a visit to the local Aerie.

Herman L. Myers, a member of the board of Grand Aerie pension trustees and aerie secretary, will address the new members who will be initiated by a group of officers and past presidents of Cumberland Aerie headed by Past State President C. William H. Baer.

The trunk sewer will be located in the North Branch of the Potomac River between Luke and Westernport and the waste treatment plant near the eastern boundary of Westernport.

The program will be held at 11 a.m. Thursday, March 13, in Room 102, Latrobe Hall, The Johns Hopkins University, Baltimore.

The permit actually requests permission for four improvements. They are (1) a 54-inch trunk sewer approximately 5,000 feet long, (2) the waste treatment plant, (3) straightening of the river channel to accommodate the plant and (4) effluent pipe into the river in or across the North Branch of the Potomac River.
